Purple Trims Maroon In Auditorium 57–42

by DAN TARPEY

The Purple Knights' basketeers continued their winning stride last Wednesday night as they trounced the highly touted Springfield College Maroons 57-42 before a jam-packed Memorial Auditorium.

Inspired by the possibility of an NAIB tournament bid, the Branonmen set their usual second half blistering pace in notching their 15th win of the season, their 7th in a row.

A decided underdog before the opening whistle according to the Dunkel rating, the Knights accepted this challenge and proceeded to rise to unforeseen heights in demonstrating the best defensive brand of ball seen at Memorial Auditorium in many a moon.

Again it was bespectacled Ted Burzenski (now only 4 points short of the 300 point record he set last year) who paved the way to victory. "Big" Teddy always a smooth all around performer gave one of his finest exhibitions of the season by popping in 10 field goals and 6 charity tosses, a grand total of 26 points.

Young Danny McCarthy and Jim "Postmaster" Farley controlled the backboards most of the evening and they also found time to chip in with 9 and 5 points respectively.

At the one minute mark of the first period "Fireman" Bob Duffy found the range from 20 feet out to put the Knights out in front 2-0, a lead that they never relinquished. Throughout the affray the Branonmen enjoyed such commanding leads as 21-15 at the half way mark and a decisive 32-20 at the start of the fourth period.

The crowd of 3,000 saw the tight guarding trio of Farley, Stapleton and Duffy throw up an impregnable defense, which limited the Maroons to 14 field goals. The Springfield quintet unable to penetrate the Knights well-knit defense attempted long and futile set shots, time after time and failed to connect.

The victory was a team affair all the way. The guards and forwards worked the ball with precision from the outside against the Maroons' sliding zone, waiting for a chance to set, or to pass it in to spectacular center.

The only bright spot in the Springfield offense was contributed by Frank Scelza a reserve forward. Scelza, playing only in the last 13 minutes hung up 11 markers to come out as the top Maroon scorer.

SQUIRES WIN

The preliminary game saw the undefeated Purple Squires hang up their 10th win of the season at the expense of the Jesters, a Community Y League Team 64-36.

Debate Men Plan Trial

by CHARLIE RANDALL

Justice will seek to triumph here at St. Michael's.

Phil "Brinks" Galligan has been subpoenaed for trial in connection with the notorious Brinks' Robbery by the Newman Debating Society.

This trial is to be held most probably February 27. Witnesses for the defense and prosecution are to be contacted shortly. Twelve upstanding Michaelmen are to serve as an impartial jury.

Though this mock trial is to be conducted in a humorous vein it will give Michaelmen an opportunity to give vent to their oratorical prowess.

This event will inaugarate a a series of similar programs to be conducted under the auspices of the Club. Anyone interested in participation in this or future like events or debates is urged to attend the next meeting.

The debating club meeting is to be held Tuesday at 4.p.m. in Aquinas Hall, Rm. 206.

New Staff Works On Paper

The pages of this week's MICHAELMAN are the work of a different group of students.

Starting with this issue several of the top positions on the masthead are filled with new names as a new staff takes over the responsibility of guiding the paper along its somewhat erratic way.

Those retiring include circulation managers, Frank Becher and Chris McNally; sports editor, Tony Cauley; and business manager, George Strizzi. The change is being made at this time so the retiring staff can help its successor get started.

Some of the new editors include: Jack Flynn, circulation manager; Whit Bartlett, sports editor; and Tim Murphy, business manager.

Other changes include, Charles Stankevich, advertising manager, and Jack Montanye, treasurer.

LONG TIME

In point of service, retiring Sports Editor Cauley is one of the oldest Michaelmen. When Cauley first started reporting three years ago, Burlington broadcaster Jack Barry was the sports editor. Tony took over a year ago last September and has held the position ever since.

Cauley will probably be best remembered for his friendship with Middlebury College and Sam Donnellon, one of its writers.

Becher and McNally, both transfer students, have been with the MICHAELMAN a year and a half. Since taking over the circulation staff a year ago they have reorganized this chore into an efficient and streamlined operation.

THE HAT

George, "the Hat", Strizzi has been one of the most valuable of the MICHAELMAN. After one semester as treasurer, Strizzi took over as

by RAY DOHERTY

The St. Michael's basketballers won their 16th game of the season with little difficulty from a shoddy Norwich Club 63-30 at Memorial Auditorium last Thursday night. The game itself was far from spectacular, yet the victory was one of extreme importance to the Purple Knights, who by it, clinched their first state title since 1940. For the past six years this distinction was owned by the University of Vermont, but this year the crown will be worn by their arch-rivals from across the Winooski River, St. Michael's.

Winning the state title was not the only factor of importance for the Branonmen however. Big Ted Burzenski's 14 points were just enough for him to break the all-time Vermont individual scoring record for a single season. Larry Killick, ex-UVM star, formerly held the record with 309 points scored during 1946-47. Burzenski eclipsed this record by 1 point, and he still has three games to play. This means that everytime Ted scores a point in the remaining games he'll be setting a new record. Along with breaking the all-time state record for individual scoring honors the big center also broke the all-time individual scoring record at St. Michael's (also his own, which he set last year with 300 points). The victory also enabled the Knights to extend their current win streak to eight straight games, another St. Michael's record.

Coach Barry Branon of the Knights made every possible effort to keep the score of the game down. He started a team composed solely of the reserves and did not insert the regular five until there were about 10 minutes remaining in the first half, from which point the game developed into a St. Michael's runaway. Once St. Michael's had assured themselves of victory the sole interest of the spectators was centered around Burzenski. They continually hollered for the "big one" to shoot, yet he passed out to his teammates almost every time he had the opportunity. When Ted finally did break the record with 1 minute and 9 seconds left in the game the slim crowd gave him a tremendous ovation.

Burzenski's 14 points were high for the night, while Paul Stapleton followed close behind in the Knights' scoring with 11 markers.

Segal led the Norwich scorers with 11 points.

SAC Starts Work For This Half

The first Monday of this new semester saw the SAC assemble to review unfinished business and to discuss present affairs.

At the last meeting, January 11, the SAC had agreed to finance the "Sunday evening free movie program." The money was to be appropriated from the Student reserve fund. The Mission Crusade will still be responsible for all the technical supervision.

THE LIBRARY

At this Jan, 11 meeting, the advisory committee's report to the Student Council on the "Library Hour Question" was read and some discussion as to the question's interpretation followed. The SAC has requested that the library be left open during noon hours to allow the students to work. This would be advantageous to the off-campus students who have to wait for a 1:30 class. The question was referred to Fr. Lyons.

The council approved the new dues system for the NFCCS. The new dues system, if approved by the National Council, will have relatively little effect on the amount the students themselves have to pay. It is more a matter of internal NFCCS policy.

Also at this previous meeting, the council game a vote of confidence to the Vermont Intercollegiate Council. This is an organization which aims to promote closer fellowship between the four Vermont Colleges.

LIBRARY AGAIN

Commencing with this semester's activity Jerry Regan was elected treasure, Former treasure Tom Breen, transferred from school at the end of the last semester.

Immediately following this matter, the library question came up again. Fr. Lyons approved the advisory committee recommendation that the library remain closed during the noon hours.

Lent Starts Wednesday Is Your Soul Clean?

Six weeks of fasting and penance begin this Wednesday at 7 as the college marks the opening of Lent with a Solemn High Mass.

At the Solemn High Mass Wednesday morning, the ashes will be blessed and distributed. They will also be distributed at the other Masses that morning and at night prayers at 5:45 in the afternoon.

During Lent there will be an 8 a.m. Mass each morning in the college chapel. Tuesday evenings at 5:45 there will be Benediction in the college Chapel. Fridays there will be Stations of the Cross at the same time.

For the students who wish to do a little more than "regulations," the rosary is being said in the college chapel each day after lunch time.

State IRC Conference Here This Saturday

The International Relations Club of St. Michael's College will be host to the Vermont Council this afternoon.

After a business meeting, Prof. O'Beirne will give a talk on the U.N. in the Science Hall, to which ALL students are invited.

A newcomer to the State Council, the Michaelman Club has had an active start this year in both State and Campus affairs. Bob White is Vice-President of the State Council, while Prof. O'Beirne's talk today will be the third of several planned panels under the auspices of the St. Michael's Club.

The talk on the U.N. and the discussion to follow should be of utmost interest to any student who has an eye on World Affairs. This is the purpose of the Int. Relations Club, a student organization for the student's own benefit.

Welcome

World peace is an important objective. It is probably the most sought after, and at the same time, the most elusive objective in the world.

Last year the statue of Our Lady of Fatima came to this campus. Its purpose - to remind us to pray and work for peace.

We then, as Catholics, should pray for peace as if everything depended on God and work for peace as if everything depended on us.

There are many ways a Catholic collegian can work for peace. A very important way is to be informed and to inform others about ways and means of attaining world peace.

This work can be done best through the medium of an organization. Here at St. Michael's we have the group known as the International Relations Club who have as their objective the understanding of world problems and means of solving them.

The activity of this club is a sign - a sign that interest is mounting in the field of international affairs on campus. We congratulate this club on its auspicious start and sincerely hope it will grow stronger in the future.

Stromboli !

We're going to have to miss " Stromboli."

It will really be rough but it looks like we'd have to struggle along minus the intellectual succor afforded by this particular masterpiece.

Perhaps you might be interested in the reason why we voted this flick as our choice for the picture we're least apt to waste our time on.

It's not because Ingrid Bergman committed adultery.

If you boycott one film because of the personal life of its star, then you might as well boycott them all. Like it or not, we're afraid the majority of Hollywood's performers are little better morally than is Miss Bergman.

As a matter of fact, if one of the other Bergmann pictures were coming to town, we'd probably go. In the past few years Miss Bergman has made a number of fine pictures including: " The Bells of St. Mary's." If that, or any of the other good pictures were playing, we'd go.

The reason we're not going to " Stromboli" is a little different.

We were just a bit sickened by the remarkable coincidence in the fact that this epic was released immediately after the news broke of Miss Bergman's illegitimate child. The common, decent thing would have been to wait a few months, so naturally, RKO didn't. Right now we have a revoltingly clear picture of some Hollywood press agent rubbing his hands and gloating over the publicity value of one woman's misfortune.

Excuse us while we vomit.

As we said, we're not staying away from " Stromboli" because of Miss Bergman's misfortune. It's not up to us to punish her or to decide whether she should be punished.

We're staying away because we feel that RKO studios has pulled a disgustingly shoddy trick by releasing THIS picture at just THIS time.

We don't imagine the company's moguls will miss our half a buck, but they're still not going to get it.

We'd rather throw it down the drain.

The Hillwind

Charlie Guill

In athletics we have what is called the " Sanity Code" which governs the benefits that an athlete may or may not receive from a school; thus we have asked the ever capable sports writers of the MICHAELMAN the following question - " What do you think of the " Sanity Code" as proposed by the N.C.A.A.?"

DAN TARPEY

The N.C.A.A. sanity code in its present form not only is detrimental to the athletically inclined students, but also is in opposition to the betterment of our educational institutions. Some such institutions are dependent upon the gate receipts which the subsidized athlete provides to relieve their financial difficulties.

As far as I am concerned, the sanity code of this present era can be termed a farce. In reality this code prevents a talented high school athlete from receiving an honest subsidy which most athletes are dependent upon in order to attain a higher degree of education.

In summing up, I believe, a just modification of this code is a necessity. However, such a modification will only come when the committee members of the N.C.A.A. fully realize that subsidization of athletes points toward a better American democracy, for a sound physical body cannot help but create a sound intellectual mind.

RAY DOHERTY NEWTON, MASS.

I see no reason why college athletes should not receive aid from the college in the form of room and board. They have a much heavier burden than the average student since an athlete must put in gruelling hours of practice and still maintain his scholastic standing. I also believe that the college itself should determine just how much aid an athletec should be given and the form of such aid.

NEW TIME

MICHAELMAN Meeting

Monday, 4:30 P.M.

TONY CAULEY HOLYOKE, MASS.

What do you think of the N.C.A.A.?

For their own benefit, and to protect themselves from those who would use unfair methods of getting athletes, colleges need a governing committee like the N.C.A.A. Without such an organization there would hardly be any of what we call true non-professionalism.

However, I cannot see their present tight rules on scholarships. They are too strict, and in being so, exclude many worthy men who must use their athletic ability to get through college, or just don't go at all.

LETTERS

DON'T READ THIS

This letter will not interest you; besides it might disturb your peace of mind. Oh, well, if you have read this far, keep going. but if your conscience bothers you don't blame me. This letter is about the Sodality of Our Lady (yeah, I know, you have heard all this before. Stop reading then). The Sodality was founded in Rome in 1563 and was established in the U.S. in 1913. The purpose of the Sodality is to establish a full Catholic life by devotion to Christ through Mary. (So you have marvelous devotion to Christ through Mary. Stop reading, then.) The Sodality hasa threefold aim:

1. Personal holiness (I know you are very holy).
2. Active Catholicity (and you are very active in things Catholic).
3. Defense of the Church (and you would die tomorrow for the Church).

SAINT WHO?

By the way, what did you say your name was? Saint??? All saints please stop reading sinners may continue. So, why am I telling you all this? Haven't you guessed yet? I am appealing to you to join the Sodality of Our Lady. (There is one on the campus you know.) You love the Mother of God, don't you? Okay let's go. Show her your love by honoring her and serving her in a society that bears her name; at the same time you will draw closer to Jesus Christ, your Lord and your God. (How's that for religious sentiment?) What are you kicking about? It's what you expected, wasn't it?

INACTIVE MEMBERS

Now, how about the " friends of Mary," who are already Sodalists (inactive, that is) What's the matter all tired out?--No ambition? You know, according to the Catholic Almanac, a Sodalist is a lay person who meets with other Sodalists, under certain rules, for pious purposes. I think some Sodalists can be described as laydowns to meet with no one, under no rules, for purposes of slumber (mental).

So, wake up inactive Sodalists and get going. Show your love for Mary. See you at the next meeting.

Just for the record, the campus Sodality is not entirely composed of screwballs, like myself. (Yeah, I belong to the Sodality.)

So, if you want to be invested in the Sodality this year, you must join before the end of February.

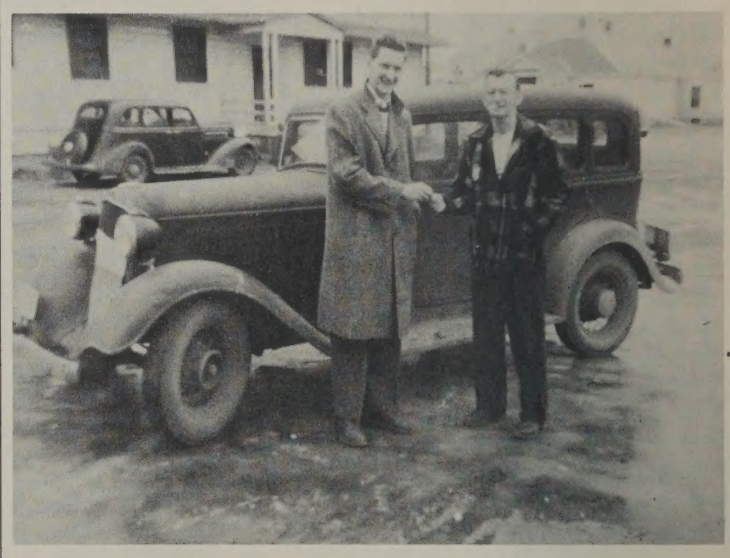
Red Dobbyn Upholds St. Leo's By Winning The Doodlebug



Last Sunday evening marked the termination of Doodlebugs Inc., when John Dobbyn '50, of Brighton, Mass., won the much publicized '33 Plymouth. The drawing was made by Rev. Raymond Poirier, S.S.E., between reels of the Mission Movie in Austin Hall.

The now EX-Doodlebug R. W. O'Brien presided in the absence of Art Fraser. This duo made up the enterprise of Doodelbugs Inc., since they bought the Plymouth (with the past built in) from Prof. Amrhein last May.

Altogether, 120 donations were made during the past weeks of canvassing and to all those who aided in the venture whether by donations or otherwise, through the pages of the MICHAELMAN, the Doodlebugs offer their thanks. As for John Dobbyn, good luck pal.

JOIN THE MICHAELMAN

Any students interested in joining the MICHAELMAN should report this Monday afternoon in the office in Aquinas Hall.

There are openings both on the editorial staff and on the ad staff. Positions on either staff pay off with valuable practical experience.

Report at the meeting this Monday at 4:30.

Knights Edge Cats Despite Final Spurt

by RAY DOHERTY

The UVM basketballers almost turned the tables on their St. Michael rivals last Monday night in Memorial Auditorium, but " almost" was not quite enough as the Purple Knights managed to scrape by the Scrappy Cats 56-52.

The game was anything but the runaway for St. Michael's that many observers believed it would be. Instead, the UVM team came upwith an inspired brand of ball and pressed the Branonmen all evening.

The Purple Knights got away in fine fashion scoring nine points before UVM could even find the basket. However, once the Evansmen came to, they started a little scoring parade of their own, and with ten minutes remaining in the first half, the St. Michael's lead had dwindled to 15-8. Between the time the Knights scored their 15th and 17th points 9 minutes and 58 seconds elapsed and the Cats made the most of this St. Michael's breakdown.

At 3:02 UVM pulled ahead of the Knights for the first time in the evening as they took a 17-15 lead. Two quick baskets by Dan Fitzgerald put the Branonmen back in the driver's seat however, where they remained till the half, when the scoreboard read 21-19.

SECOND HALF EVEN

The basket-for-basket brand of ball continued in the early stages of the second half. With about five minutes gone UVM held a 27-25 advantage over the Purple and Gold cagers, but at this point St. Michael's seemed to catch fire, and in the next five minutes of play they pulled away to a 44-31 lead, due to the hustling efforts of Jim Farley and his passing partner Paul Stapleton.

Applying plenty of " never say die" effort the Cats continued to fight their way back. With three minutes left the Knights' lead had dwindled to 52-47, but seconds later Danny McCarthy salted the game away for the Michaelmen on an easy lay-up. With slightly more than a minute left in the game St. Michael's put on a nifty exhibition of freezing the ball in order to preserve their lead.

BIG TED STARS

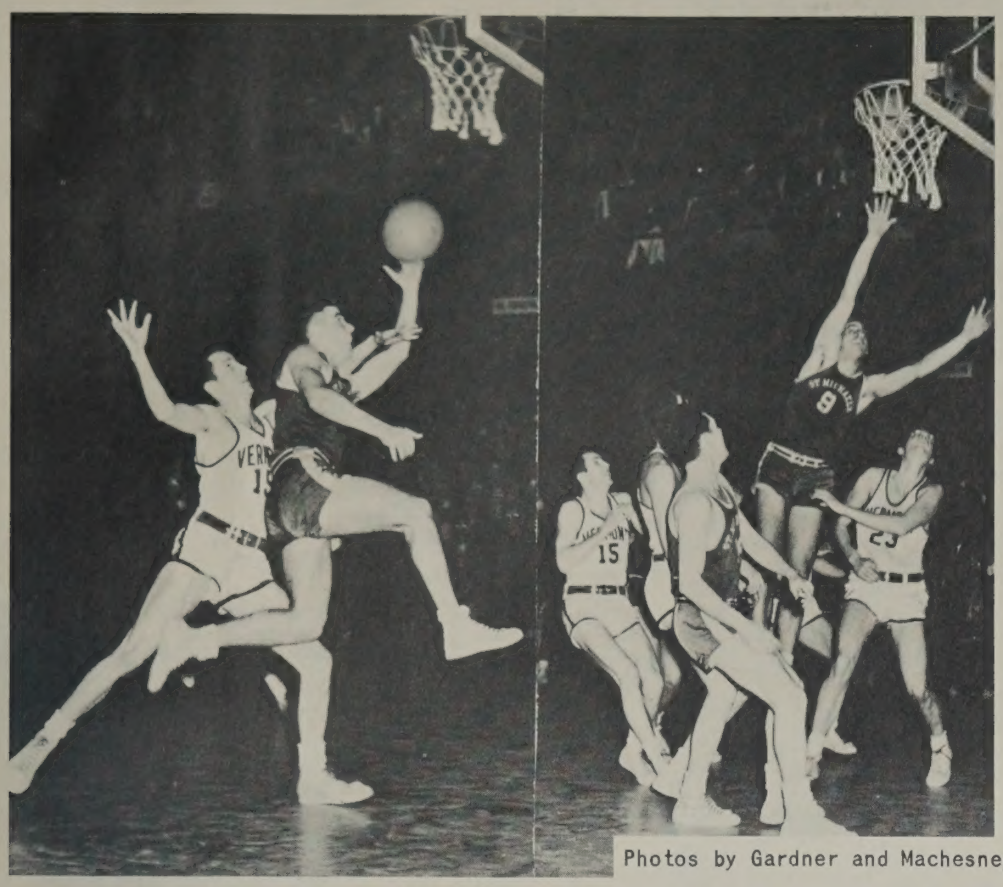
For the second successive game big Ted Burzenski turned in one of his best performances. His 19 points were high for the night, and on defense he controlled the boards a good portion of the evening. Choosing individual stars would be difficult since the whole St. Michael's team shone when the pressure was on.

Over on the Cats' side Eddie Kotlarczykwas far and away the player of the evening as his 14 points and superb floor work will attest to.

Along with being win number 14, the victory practically assures St. Michael's of the Vermont state championship. They only have two state games left and these are against Norwich and Middlebury, both of whom the Knights have already beaten before this season.

FROSH WIN HANDILY

In the preliminary game the St. Michael's Frosh continued their undefeated streak by topping the UVM Frosh 66-38. Leading the Squires was Mike Carr with 18 points, followed by George Barry who scored 15.



Photos by Gardner and Machesney

by WHIT BARTLETT

With the Green Mountain Title all wrapped up and a Tournament Bid in their pocket, the Purple Knights have a long lay off before they play their final three games of the season. The Knights are idle until February 28, when they journey to Middlebury to play the Panthers in their final State game of the season. After that the Mikemen play Williams on March 1st and then finish the regular season's schedule in the Boston Arena on March 4th.

The past week was certainly a momentous one for the most successful team in the history of St. Michael's. They took two games from Vermont to wrap up their first State title since 1943 and they beat a good Springfield Club to stamp themselves as the top small college team in New England.

Of the three games left on the schedule the Williams tilt looms as the toughest assignment. The Ephmen are always tough on their home court and this year have an all veteran team ready to throw at the Knights. Last year the Knights dropped a close overtime game to the Ephmen. Williams beat Amherst by 19 points.

Turning to boxing, tonight in Lowell, Mass.,Forrest Rouelle and Harry Young move into the New England Golden Gloves Tourney. The two boxers have been working out for the past three weeks under Bill Piscione and are in top shape.

Willy Hart was in town for the UVM game and said that he will be leaving about March 15th to begin training with the Class B Decatur, Ill., baseball team. That's a Cub Farm team and Bill is still with that organization contrary to earlier reports that he had been dropped.

John Bunn, the Springfield College coach was high in his praise of the Purple Knights' basketball team. He had no excuse for his team except that he thought the lighting system at the Auditorium was rather dim and at the start of the second half he requested that the house lights be left on.

RPI Beats SMC In Hockey Game

Troy, N. Y., Feb. 11... Rensselaer Polytech showed that practice does make perfect here tonight as they outskated and outscored the Purple Knights of St. Michael's 8 to 4 before 3500 fans in the Engineers' field house.

Nice passing by the cherry red and white, through the 60 minutesof a red hot battle from start to finish, tired out the visiting Michaelmen from Winooski Part, Vt. The Engineers' record now stands at two victories in five games as against a split in two games for the Knights.

FELONEY STARS

Jim Feloney, St. Michael's stellar right winger, never gave up in the losing cause figuring in the four goals scored by the visitors. Feloney, high scorer for the Knights last year, led the Knights' attack with the hat trick on three solo dashes from mid ice, one in the first period and two in the second. Al Fecteau, of the visitors' six gaged the fourth goal on an assist from Feloney and veteran Jack Conway.

Paul Gullans, of RPI, matched Feloney's hat trick with three goals. His third goal, half way through the third period caught the St. Michael's netminder, Bob Belliveau, over anxious. Gullan's shot was a dribbler that trickled by Belliveau.

The second period looked more like a hockey game with the scoring evened upat two goals apiece. The forces of Ned Harkness had 15 shots at Belliveau and Fr. Garrett B. Larkin's skaters had 14 at Nick Ostazewski of the home team.

SAC Starts Work

This matter has been pending since last October when Joe Shea was appointed a committee of one to check up on the situation.

Shea first went to Librarian Rev. Vincent Maloney. Next the Council directed Shea to refer the matter to the advisory committee. This is composed of Fr. Dupont, Fr. D'Agostino and Prof. Hannigan. Shea put the matter to the committee in November. At the January 11 meeting, the committee recommended that the council drop the question for the time being. The committee's report concluded " the SAC and the student body have the assurance of Fr. Maloney that the library facilities and services will be extended when it becomes possible to do so."

The council then referred the matter to Fr. Lyons who seconded the advisory committee's recommendations.

Another long drawn out matter was also settled at this past meeting. Walt Coon was finally permitted to resign as Senior delegate of the NFCCS. Coon had asked the council to appoint his successor. In November this question was forwarded to the Electoral Committee. This consists of the advisory committee, plus Fr. Moriarty, and the presidents of the three upper classes.

Frank Lennon was finally appointed to the position.

At this same meeting the Senior Ball Committee presented an expense account which showed a loss of $17.85. The report was approved and money was taken from the SAC reserve fund to cover the deficit.

Also under consideration was a request for funds from the International Relations Club. This request was tabled. The council's final action was to form a standing committee to review all major collegeprojects such as the Winter Carnival, Junior Prom etc. This committee includes Jim McKown, Bob Sullivan and Bob Flanagan.

business manager last February. Within three months Strizzi had tripled the paper's income from advertising.

In addition he contacted the National Advertising concern with the result that this year the MICHAELMAN has been able to get a succession of ads from " Chesterfield," " U.S. Army",etc.

Indicative of his work is the fact that this year's Michaelman, with its occasional six page issues, is costing the students several hundred dollars less than last year's.
